

Proof of Residency: Acceptable Forms of ID

Proof of residency (primary examples, not an exhaustive list):

- Driver's License or other current government issued ID with address
- Current utility bill (within the last six months)
- Current property tax notice (within the last year)
- Any dated work order, building permit, invoice, or similar document (within the last three months) that reasonably demonstrates residency, property ownership, or performance of work within the District
- Vehicle Insurance Card (with address)
- Safety and/or Emissions documents (with address)

Government issued cards or documents MAY be accepted as adequate proof of residency if address and date are on the card/document.

Unacceptable forms of ID (examples only, not an exhaustive list):

- Hand written letters/envelopes
- Government ID undated
- Government ID without address
- Vehicle Registration (no address)
- Voter Registration Card